LINK PLOT ON U. S. TO WAR ON JEWS

By ROBERT HUMPHREYS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 20—Dies committee members said today that they probably would make public next week a series of secret reports—many of them of a fantastic nature—on which a group of anti-Semites attempted to base a subtle, nationwide campaign against Jews.

The reports, numbering 180 and covering a 22-month period, purport to be stenographic transcripts of conversations between prominent members of a New York City club, were gathered, according to the commitee's evidence, by Dudley Pierrepont Gilbert, wealthy New York Socialist, through an informant, and subsequently were distributed to key personages over the nation on a confidential basis.

Described by Chairman Martin Dies (D.) of Texas as "highly inflammatory documents calculated to incite racial hatred" the reports purported to disclose a plot by the club members to seize control of the government.

LINK GOVERNMENT AIDES

Committee members said they felt reluctant in making the material public without first fully exposing those who have been circulating the reports.

It was learned that members of the club, which lists highly placed government officials — both state and federal—big business men, and financiers among its membership, have been approached by emissaries of the committee for discussions of proper means of releasing the reports to the public.

Rhea Whitley, committee counsel, conferred with Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau, after which it was announced they discussed the recent presidential order giving the committee access to income tax returns. It was reliably reported that the subject of the propaganda reports also was discussed with a view to their publication. Morgenthau, it was understood, is a member of the New York club involved.

FR. COUGHLIN TALKS

Gilbert, according to testimony before the committee, spent $8000 to have a Kentucky Army reserve captain, James Erwin Campbell of Owensboro, distribute the reports to a select mailing list of 40 prominent persons. Other material, including speeches by Maj.-Gen. George Van Horn Moseley, retired army officer, and Father Coughlin, Detroit priest, went to an additional 260 persons.

Campbell's files, seized by the Bare Nazi Plot to Kill Benes While in U. S.

PARIS, May 20 (AP)—Diplomatic sources here said today Stefan Osusky, former Czecho-Slovak minister to France, had forwarded to ex-President Eduard Benes information of a Nazi-fomented plot to assassinate Benes during his rent residence in the United States.

Benes, who resigned as Czecho-Slovakia's president after the September partioning of that now vanished republic at Munich, is lecturing in the United States.

Osusky was said to have turned over all his information to French and American authorities.

His information was described as coming from secret agents in Prague and was said to include charges that the plot was fomented by the Nazi secret police in the Czech capital.

Charges City Buried Wife in Grave With Body of Stranger

Accusing the Boston public welfare department of "callous disregard of common decency," a bereaved South End husband charged today that his wife's body was buried Monday, without his knowledge and in the same grave with the body of a stranger.

He and his two children were unable to attend funeral or interment because he was not notified of the time or place, the husband charged.

The complainant is Clifford Cotter, 26, of Rutland street, South End. A former motion picture operator, he is now a welfare recipient, employed at odd jobs at City Hospital.

DEMANDS INQUIRY

Acting on Cotter's complaint, City Councilor John E. Kerrigan, South Boston, made a formal demand for a full investigation.

He called upon City Hospital trustees and overseers of the public welfare department to investigate the Cotter case thoroughly.

"It's time we found out how these welfare burials are arranged," Kerrigan asserted. "If Cotter's story is true, the situation is a shameful one and ought to be corrected immediately."

Mrs. Cotter, who was 30 years old, died May 8 at City Hospital, according to her husband. He was notified by a police officer, he said.

The body was removed to the South morgue, Cotter asserted, and he called there repeatedly, trying to learn when the funeral would be held.

"They just kept telling me they'd let me know," he said.

"Then Thursday when I went to teh morgue, they told me, 'Oh, your wife was buried Monday. The undertaker was supposed to notify you.'"

"I got the undertaker's name and his address in Dorchester. He said he had tried to reach me

N.E. FOLK DRAW FOUR $5610 PURSES IN IRISH SWEEPS

Drawings in the Irish Hospital Sweepstakes today spilled 50 residual prizes of $5610 each into American pockets—but only four of them were in New England. Those who drew the overflow prizes were as follows:

"SOSO," 207 Hammond street, Chestnut Hill.

OUR LAST TIME, Boston.

THREE MUSKETEERS, Elks Club, Leominster.

CHRISSIKOU, MRS. P. L., Gorman, Me.

These New Englanders won consolation awards of $200 each.

LYNCH, J. F., 8 Center street, Roxbury.

"A BREAK TOWARD BETTER LUCK," 62 Highland avenue, Salem.

"ON THE NOSE," Boston.

THE BIG SHOUT, 34 Glenwood avenue, Cambridge.

O. K., 370 Beacon street, Boston.

IRVING LOVELL, 1518 Washington street, Stoughton.

Mrs. Chrisikos, wife of a restaurant owner, went to Gorham, Me., from Dalden, Greece, as a bride last September.

Unable to speak English with fluency, she referred questioners to her husband. Chrisikos said the money probably would go toward anticipated hospital expenses.

LUCKY SCHOOLGIRLS

Meanwhile twin schoolgirls of Boston were among those who share a ticket on one of the starting horses and a chance at the top $150,000 prize in the big race to be run May 24.

The girls are Winton and Irene Yates, daughters of Special Officer Harvey Yates of the South End station. They live in Massachusetts avenue, South End.

They raided their joint savings bank for the nickels needed to buy the ticket—one of two held by Boston residents.

The other was drawn by Samuel Millman, 65, teacher of Hebrew, who came up with a 40—1 shot on Major Brackley. Eight other Boston residents hold tickets on non-starters.

The two girls also hold a chance on a 40—1 shot, Wheatland, and are assured of winning at least $1857, the minimum prize for drawing a starting horse. They have been offered $2858 for the ticket by a New York broker.

Hub Jews Plan Monster Rally

Boston Jewry and their Christian friends rallied today for a monster meeting to be held tomorrow afternoon in Faneuil Hall, in indignation over Great Britain's repudiation of the plan for a Jewish homeland in Palestine.

Both Governor Saltonstall and Mayor Tobin are expected to head a long list of speakers who are to call upon Britain to stand by the covenant made with Jewry in 1917.

Medford Star Killed by Train

The mangled body of Joseph E. Wood, Jr., 18-year-old star Medford High School athlete and school leader, was found today on the railroad tracks under Grove street bridge, Medford.

Identification was made by the boy's broken-hearted father, a Medford letter carrier, who had notified police earlier in the day that his son had not been home all night.

Family attendance at a church reunion was revealed as the innocent cause of the tragedy.

Young Wood had been driven to his home, Valley street, Medford, during the evening by some high school friends with whom he was planning a Sunday outing.

When he got there, he found his parents and his brother had gone to a church reunion at St. Francis of Assisi Church in Medford, and he apparently went out to take a walk until they returned.

'Shoot to Kill' Order In Girl Kidnap Hunt

LOWELL, May 20—Three-score police, armed with tear gas bombs and riot guns and aided by hundreds of aroused citizens, today hunted a mad bandit who abducted a girl, attacked her after a wild auto chase, then fled.

For hours all through the night, the search was on—apparently in vain.

Annette Landry, 21, his victim, was caught between cross-fire as police first saw the gunman near Stevens and Middlesex streets. During the running gun battle, he disappeared.

For several hours police patrolled the neighborhood where the fugitive was believed cornered, with orders to shoot on sight. Then they realized their quarry had slipped through their cordon.

Hundreds of residents in the section cowered in their homes, streets were blocked to all motorists and spectators and the entire neighborhood took on a "No Man's Land" appearance when officers invaded the area.

The pursuit grew hot at daybreak with the discovery of the bandit's gun, a 32-caliber revolver, and hat, near the spot in Walker street, where he was last seen.

AT POINT OF GUN

Meanwhile state police and departments in neighboring Chelmsford, Lawrence, Dracut and Billerica stood ready to send reinforcements. Reports of the search were sent to state police throughout the east by radio and teletype.

Miss Landry, an attractive brunette, was seated with Albert Descheneaux, 45, in his car, watching a carnival at Market and Lewis streets when the gunman leaped into the machine, shortly after midnight.

Descheneaux was forced out at gunpoint and the bandit, threatening the Landry girl with death, drove off at terrific speed. Descheneaux ran to a nearby drug store and notified police.

As the car raced down Middlesex street near the center of the city, Patrolmen Jerome F. Cullen and Joseph Boyle, who had just heard

QUINCY SUICIDE'S WIDOW COLLAPSES

Shocked by the sight of her estranged husband's suicide, a pretty young Quincy woman, mother of a four-year-old son, was in a state of collapse today.

She is Mrs. Charlotte Vose of Beach street, before whose gaze Richard M. Vose, 28-year-old Quincy insurance agent, pulled a revolver and took his life.

Vose was sitting in his automobile in front of his father-in-law's home waiting to pay his wife separate support when death came. She had just reached the side of his automobile when the shot rang out and he toppled at her side.

As the wife screamed and collapsed, George Ray, her father, ran to her assistance. He carried her in the house and summoned an ambulance.

But Vose died within a few minutes while on the way to the Quincy Hospital.

Medical Examiner Dr. George Dalton pronounced the death a suicide.

The young couple, according to police, separated only three months ago after five years of happy married life. Friends and relatives were unable to explain the reason for their marital breakup.

Members of Vose's family, however, revealed that he had suffered a great shock a year ago when his sister and father died within less than five months.

Mother, 5, May Come to World's Fair

NEW YORK, May 20 (INS)—Negotiations are under way to bring Lina Medina, five-year-old Peruvian Indian mother and her six-pound baby to the New York World's Fair.

While the approval of Grover Whalen, president of the Fair, is pending, a spokesman for the "Strange As It Seems" concession said the child mother has been offered $1000 a week, plus expenses.

LIMA, Peru, May 20 (INS)—The Peruvian government considered favorably the advisability of establishing a State guardianship over Lina Medina, the five-year-old Indian girl who gave birth to a six-pound boy Sunday night.

Indicative of Lina's recuperation from a Caesarian operation which delivered her son was the fact that she ate a good-sized luncheon of soup, an omelette, a steak, milk and fruit in the Lima Maternity Hospital. The baby is likewise in excellent condition.

3 DROWN AS BOAT SINKS IN SQUALL ON SEBAGO LAKE

SEBAGO LAKE, Me., May 20—Two women and a man, members of a week-end party of six, were drowned last night when their motorboat overturned in a squall on Sebago Lake, it was revealed with today's dawn.

The three victims were Mrs. Jeanette C. Sheehan, 50, of Staten Island, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. James C. DeGruchy, both 35, of Sanford.

DeGruchy, a graduate of Lowell Textile School, recently lived in Pleasant street, Stoneham. He worked as a chemist at a mill in Sanford. He was the son of James C. DeGruchy of Stoneham, veteran advertising man for a Boston newspaper.

Mrs. Andrew Flagg of Stoneham, a sister of DeGruchy, declared her brother and his young wife often went to Sebago on weekend fishing parties. She said Mrs. Sheehan was a lifelong friend of her family.

Three other members of the party called aid when the trio failed to return to their cabins after a midnight trip about the lake.

Chief Game Warden Verne Black and four deputies later found the body of Mrs. Sheehan, wedged beside the motor of the overturned craft.

Other searchers then discovered the body of Mrs. DeGruchy, floating on the lake, about three-quarters of a mile from shore.

Dragging operations to recover the body of the third victim, DeGruchy, began on arrival of grappling irons brought from Portland by Sheriff Henry E. Burnell.

The three victims went to death without occupants of cabins on shore hearing a sound, leading authorities to believe the motor boat capsized far from shore in the dead of night.

Dr. Robert B. Love of Gorham, medical examiner, gave a verdict of accidental drowning.

SQUALL SWEPT LAKE

The tragedy occurred off Long Beach, near the mouth of the so-called Northwest river.

Lake residents said a rain squall came up during the night and police theorized the victims' boat might have struck a log before it capsized.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Shoesmith and daughter, Margaret, were the other members of the vacation party.

Shoesmith told authorities the six had originally gone out on the lake in two boats, but that the Shoesmith's returned within a short time.

Jews Speed Boycott Plans As Reply to Great Britain

By the Associated Press

Signs of stress and turmoil intensified in Asia today as in Europe the pressure of the French government and public opinion in England weighed on Britain to bring Soviet Russia into the British-French lineup.

In the Near East, Palestine's aroused Jews worked beneath an outward calm to arrange economic measures in protest against Britain's plan to give Arabs dominance in the Holy Land. Jewish leaders counted on a general policy of non-co-operation to register their dissatisfaction more effectively than open rebellion.

Jebel Druze hill tribes in Syria began a new campaign for independence as dissension grew, apparently fed by the French agreement in principle to re-attach the republic of Hatay (the state of Alexandretta) to Turkey.

AGREEMENT IN JAPAN

In the Far East, five Japanese Cabinet ministers reached an agreement on Japan's position in the European situation and were expected shortly to issue a statement explaining the terms of their as yet unannounced decision, the result of three months' discussions.

Reliable sources in London, meanwhile, indicated unusual unanimity of British opinion favoring a tie-up with Russia as the drawn-out negotiations shifted to Paris. There, British Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax was to talk with French Premier Daladier and Foreign Minister Georges Bonnet, preparatory to conversations with Ivan Maisky, Russia's delegate to a League of Nations council meeting in Geneva Monday.

'GUNS BEST ARGUMENT'

The French cabinet approved nine new decree laws dealing with national defense and heard a detailed explanation from Bonnet of France's role in the British-Russian negotiations.

At the same time, German Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels responded to British Prime Minister Chamberlain's proposal of a long range peace policy with the assertion: "There is no better argument than weapons."

While Italian Foreign Minister Count Ciano prepared to leave Rome for Berlin to sign the treaty welding the Rome-Berlin axis into a formal alliance, Premier Mussolini decided to close his week's tour of the Italian Piedmont region with an address to a mass meeting.

Many Flee Quakes At Verde Island

MANILA, May 20 (AP)—Refugees fleeing Verde island's earthquakes said today tremors had opened fissures on the tiny island 100 miles south of Manila causing a portion of its surface to settle.

Several hundred of the island's 4000 inhabitants crossed the 10-mile channel to the Batangas province coast and reported more of the island population was preparing to evacuate.

Murder Ring Trials Speeded

PHILADELPHIA, May 20 (AP)—The Commonwealth cleared the deck today for mass arraignment and quick trials of a dozen persons charged with murder and manslaughter in the first "wholesale" indictments growing out of an insurance-murder syndicate investigation.

Twenty-eight bills were returned against eight men and four women in five or more than 100 deaths which investigators believe the syndicate plotted in Eastern states in the last ten years.

Assistant District Attorney Vincent F. McDevitt announced the group would be arraigned Tuesday and those pleading innocent would be brought to trial "as quickly as possible." He said some guilty pleas were expected.

NURSE IS SUICIDE

MIDDLEBORO, May 20 (AP)—The body of Marie Williams, 50, a registered nurse, was found today in the Nemasket river. Medical Examiner A. Vincent Smith said she was a suicide by drowning.

Miss Talley Admits Apartment 'Tryst'

NEW YORK, May 20—Visits which Marion Talley allegedly made to the home of a former movie director today were shielded from public gaze—the result of a cleared courtroom in her suit for the custody of her four-year-old daughter, Susan.

"Testimony of intimate nature" was the explanation.

Miss Talley, former grand opera star, is suing her husband, Adolph Eckstrom, from whom she is separated, and in whom custody of the child is now lodged.

The request for clearance of the room was made by her counsel, John Keith, when Fred Sitterly of California took the stand to tell of visits made by Miss Talley to the home of Aubrey Scotto, former movie director. Miss Talley had not yet finished her case and when Adolph Eckstrom Eckstrom's counsel, Frank Delancey, asked permission to call Sitterly out of turn, Keith rose to declare:

TO PROTECT CHILD

"There is going to be some unpleasant notoriety in the testimony of this witness. In the best interests of the child I think that only her parents should hear it. I ask that the courtroom be cleared, and I particularly ask that the witness' wife should leave."

The well-filled courtroom was emptied immediately by the referee's accession to Keith's request.

Miss Talley previously had testified that she visited Sitterly's apartment home only to hear records of her voice, often when his wife was present.

CALLED HER "MOTHER"

She broke down and wept while telling of an attempt to regain custody of the child while it was being kept at the home of Mrs. Ruth Nelson, her husband's aunt, in Mamaroneck.

"What did your daughter call Mrs. Nelson?" her counsel asked her. "She called her 'mother,' Miss Talley sobbed.

Under cross examination, Miss Talley said that Scotto had driven her car during the summer of 1928 in Hollywood.

"Was Mrs. Scotto in New York at the time?" "I don't know."

"How many times were you in Mr. Scotto's apartment while Mrs. Scotto was in New York?" "I couldn't say."

"Can't you approximate the number?" "I'm not sure that I was—I'm not sure that I wasn't."

"Where are the Scottos now?" "I don't know."

QUEEN ELIZABETH WILL DO SPEAKING ON OTTAWA TOUR

OTTAWA, May 20 (AP)—Queen Elizabeth—who friends have said made the King propose three times before she married him—does the talking at today's ceremonies of the royal tour.

Her Majesty's part in the story book pageantry for Ottawa, at least, although red-coated dragoons, shining helmets and state coaches are quite the thing in London—was laying of the corner stone for the new Supreme Court building.

She prepared for the ceremony her first formal radio address, coming just before noon on the program and after the grand military drill, trooping the color on Parliament Hill.

It was for Their Majesties just another precedent shattered among the many that have cracked since they jauntily sailed out of fog and ice of the North Atlantic to win the acclaim of Quebec, Montreal and now Ottawa—just as the King's ministers in London and Ottawa had hoped.

Thus far the Queen, Scottish born, and King George have visited predominantly French-speaking areas of their largest dominion—even Ottawa which is the capital.

The city, with sparkling lagoons and lakes and the Ottawa River rushing swiftly toward the great St. Lawrence, is yielding increasingly to French-Canadian influence, old residents say; and Their Majesties' formal drive across the river today to Hull was into the "French city proper."

Nevertheless, Ottawa in a sense was today really England, even London, because Their Majesties—who planned three costume changes for the various functions today—were in residence in Rideau Hall, home of the governor-general.

King George, having taken physical possession of the throne in yesterday's parliamentary ceremony, could if he liked assume all the royal functions of government which normally the governor-general carries out.

The niceties of this situation were such that Lord Tweedsmuir waited at government house when the King went to the Senate yesterday since the King could represent himself and it would not have been appropriate for the governor-general (monarch by proxy) to exercise any royal functions.

It was explained, however, that because of the "nature and duration" of the royal visit, Lord Tweedsmuir would continue to do those "functions, which always have to be carried on from day to day."

Following a garden party for 5000 guests this afternoon—Canadian society's opportunity to be in the royal presence — a parliamentary dinner tonight and unveiling of a war memorial tomorrow, Their Majesties swing into the heart of Ontario and English-speaking Canada.

In Toronto on Monday, however, they will meet more French people—the very famous five Dionnes, who are five years old May 28.

The quins make their first train trip to see the King and Queen, whose wards they are, and they have been practicing the proper etiquette with all the difficulties some of their elders have been afraid of, fumbling the bow. Marie and Emilie bowed so low in practice at the Callander nursery they toppled over.

Quins Worry Dafoe Over Visit to King

CALLANDER, Ont., May 20 (INS)—Doctor Allan Roy Dafoe confided to reporters that his anxiety over the quints' first trip to Toronto next Sunday was overshadowing the feeling of excitement over meeting the King and Queen he would ordinarily feel.

"I'm not worried about their health—but you never know what may happen. It's a pretty anxious time," he said.

Dr. Dafoe said he would wear morning clothes and the medal conferred on him by King George V in 1935, when he is presented to Their Majesties. The dress clothes have been in moth balls since 1935, when the Order of the British Empire was presented to Dr. Dafoe by the governor-general of Canada.

OFFICER STRICKEN

Stricken at his home in Lexington avenue, Cambridge, Lieutenant Charles W. Wyman, veteran Cambridge police officer, was reported critically ill at Cambridge City Hospital today.

King and Queen 'Real Swell Folks' to U. S. News Writers

By WALTER KIERNAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

OTTAWA, May 20—No reporter could meet the rulers of the British empire informally, chat with them and not write a first person story about it. Not this reporter, anyway.

WEARING the uniform of a British army field marshal, King George is shown inspecting the honor guard of Cameron Highlanders that saluted him and his Queen on their arrival in Ottawa, Canada. Occasional rains and cloudy skies failed to keep back the thousands who roared their cheers for the royal couple.

"The governor-general," the gold-crested card read, "has received Their Majesties command to invite Mr. Walter Kiernan to a reception at Government House on Friday the 19th, May, 1939, at 5:15 p. m."

So on Friday the 19th, May, 1939, at 5:15 p. m., I rode up to the gate of Government House, the governor's mansion, in an antique bus filled with other astonished newspapermen.

Some wore morning dress, others their own clothes and each side derided the other (I was with the sack suit boys).

Eventually we were admitted to the drawing room where we stood or sat at ease.

They came in smiling, the King smoking a cigarette, the Queen carrying a small handbag.

She wore plain light blue lace dress, beige stockings and white shoes. The dress was ankle length. The King wore an informal black coat with high-waisted grey-striped trousers.

Starting at one end of the circle they worked their way round to the other, shaking hands with each writer and chatting for a moment with three or four. I was one. I have no special recipe for success.

I had seen them an hour before in Ottawa's old Parliament House presiding as King and Queen of Canada in a setting of almost indescribable magnificence, pomp and solemnity.

Now they were standing before me, smiling, chatting. They "had their hair down," so to speak, and I made my decision—they are real.

They are as real as any nice English boy or Scotch girl you ever have met. They are as real to an American reporter, who has few illusions left, as any nice couple you would meet at a party in your home town.

The Queen opened the brief conversation.

CONFUSING TIMES

"It must be confusing keeping track of the time when you are writing," she said.

I admitted it had been so far on this trip, with so many things to be covered at so many places miles apart and traffic jams to contend with.

The King said, "It may be worse—I understand we will go through several time zones," and the Queen put in, "We have come through one already."

"By the time you reach the West Coast you will need half a dozen watches," I said brightly.

The King smiled. "Probably they would all be wrong," he said, and they moved on smiling to the next person.

When they had completed the round of the circle, they smiled, bowed and withdrew, and American newspapermen, who are accustomed to sitting on their hands when others are cracking their gloves with applause, actually clapped their palms together hard and long.

It was not prearranged and nobody gave a signal. Each man just acted on impulse. We all felt that we had just met a couple of swell people and we wanted to let them know we thought they were swell.

TRAIL RED THREAT SENT MRS. CHASE

The police radical squad today probed Communist threats against the safety of the wife of City Councilor Perlie Dyar Chase, which the city official declared had been made because of his attacks on Communism.

PERLIE DYAR CHASE
Reveals Threats

Revelation that threats had been sent the councillor's wife became public when Arthur R. Buckley of Falmouth street, Back Bay, demanded to be heard on the matter of a permit for a Communist meeting.

A council committee was considering the 1939 municipal budget when Buckley, who identified himself as a representative of the Communist party, made his demand.

"We don't care for suggestions from Communists," Chase, chairman of the committee, declared.

When Buckley demanded to be heard as a citizen, Chase told him he was "a poor citizen" if he were a Communist.

Other members of the committee, except Councilor Sidney Rosenberg of Dorchester, agreed with Chase. Rosenberg contended that under the democratic form of government every citizen had a right to be heard.

Chase then declined emphatically and ordered Buckley from the hearing room at Faneuil Hall and disclosing the threats against his wife.

Principal speaker for the public and tax associations was Herman C. Loeffler, secretary of the Boston Municipal Research Bureau, which conducted research on which the cuts proposals are based.

Specifically he recommended: a $27,500 saving by cutting in half clerical and other services rendered the City Council.

Trail Kidnaper Of Lowell Girl

a radio alarm, started their police cruiser in pursuit.

Cullen said the bandit leaned out and fired at the police car. In return, the officer emptied his gun, one shot taking effect.

Half an hour later, after a reckless, looping ride around the outskirts of the city, the gunman forced his advances on the girl, according to a statement which police said she gave them.

The wild trip was resumed and at Middlesex and Stevens streets Miss Landry, in a desperate move, turned off the ignition. Barely avoiding a crash, her assailant pulled the machine to a stop.

Two officers at the scene shot at the youth as he fled. Running into Marginal street, he turned and fired back. Miss Landry, bewildered by the excitement and partially overcome by the horror of her experience, stood motionless as the bullets whistled near.

Soon the neighborhood was surrounded by police on foot and in cars. Searchlights played across lawns of Middlesex and Stevens street homes.

GIRL AIDS MAN-HUNT

Additional police details, armed with sawed-off shotguns, hunted through the old Normal School grounds. Along the Merrimac river and the Boston & Maine railroad tracks other groups pushed the search.

Refusing to go to her home in Merrimack street while the hunt was still in progress, Miss Landry rode in a police car to help identify the bandit in event of his capture.

As the scope of the search widened today, she went to police headquarters to study rogues' gallery pictures in an effort to learn her assailant's identity.

HIT-RUN VICTIM "FAIR"

Five-year-old Martin J. Shields, Jr., who was run down by a hit-run auto in Magnolia street, Roxbury, near his home, was reported in "fair" condition at City Hospital today. The child received a fractured right leg and internal

Ice Box Falls On Boy, 4; No Bones Broken

Four-year-old Johnny Ryan of Westville street, Dorchester, had a narrow escape from being crushed to death today when he pulled a heavy ice box over on himself.

Johnny and his two-year-old brother, Jimmy, had gone with their mother, Mrs. Julia Ryan, to spend part of the day with their grandmother, Mrs. Mary Fogarty, of Julian street, Roxbury. The children were playing on the back porch when a loud crash was heard. Mrs. Ryan ran out and found Jimmy pinned beneath the overturned ice chest.

She rushed the little boy to City Hospital, where he was treated for scalp lacerations. Hospital officials said he had no broken bones.

Boy Shoots Self After Wrecking Auto

DENVER, May 20 (AP)—A 17 year-old high school boy shot himself through the stomach to atone for wrecking a borrowed automobile, police said today.

Alvin Ogle used the service revolver of his stepfather, Patrolman George B. Hart. He left this note:

"I hope this will pay for the car, because my life is all I have to give."

He is in a critical condition.

BEATEN—Police today hunted a youth who climbed through an open window of the South End home of Louise Turnbull, 17, who was doing housework, and when asked what he wanted, leaped at the girl and struck her on the temple. Barks of Miss Turnbull's pet dog, Skippy, roused a neighbor who appeared as the youth fled.

Fear N. Y. Child Vagrant's Victim

NEW YORK, May 20 (INS)—Fearing 13-year-old Ishy Aylesworth fell into the hands of a vagrant near the World's Fair Grounds, extra police and detectives today were ordered to search for the child.

The girl, whose home is in Queens, left home Thursday afternoon.

Garner Eats Crabs After Wife's O. K.

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP)—Vice-President Garner ate soft shell crabs at a luncheon given by Senator Radcliffe (D) of Maryland—but only after Mrs. Garner told him it was all right.

The Vice-President is dieting to reduce his weight before hot weather strikes Washington.

Will Provides Her Dog Must Die

NORTHAMPTON, May 20—"Bunny Chin Chin," a thoroughbred Pekinese, soon is to join his mistress in death according to the terms of the will of Miss Jane Bigelow, wealthy spinster, who died here Tuesday.

The will directs that the dog shall be destroyed "mercifully" on her death. Specific bequests of $20,000 were made with the residue of a large estate to be equally divided between the Clark School for the Deaf and the Colley Dickinson Hospital of Northampton.

MANY FACE RACKET CHARGES

One public official, a number of former officials and several "racketeers" are in the shadow of prosecution in an alleged Massachusetts pardon and parole ring, it was learned today.

All have been implicated during the week of hearings by the special legislative committee probing the state's pardon and parole system—a probe which probably will be continued under an increased appropriation as a result of the startling disclosures already made.

The committee, it was learned, has made such good use of its power to grant immunity to witnesses that it has received astounding revelations indicating the existence of a vast pardon and parole system operated by the underworld in co-operation with politicians, and also information concerning unsolved crimes.

Various notorious "mobs," whose activities range from Boston into Rhode Island and New York, are said to have been tied into the pardon racket by the stories of witnesses, some of which have already been verified.

STARTLING EVIDENCE

In addition information has been received by letter from individuals who requested that their identity be concealed, from district attorneys' offices and from police reports.

Thus far, it is understood, the probe has examined only pardons, paroles and commutations of sentence granted in 1938, but the evidence uncovered is said to be so startling the completed investigation is expected to rock Massachusetts.

Candy Men to Dine, Attend Sox Game

Did Amelia Earhart Cheat Death?

No. 1 Handicapper—How He Does It

A New Murder Mystery Thriller

After Commencement—What?

The 400 Have Their Sorrows, Too

A Minister Turns Detective

By GEORGE LEWIS

IS AMELIA EARHART dead or alive? When she and her daring navigator headed their plane out over the desolate stretch of sea between British New Guinea and the Hawaiian Islands were they actually going to the grave? Or has Providence spared them?

Such are the questions Paul Whelton discusses tomorrow in the Sunday Advertiser's Green Magazine.

AMELIA EARHART

DAVE EGAN

The millions who have never abandoned hope that the Medford girl who became aviation's foremost woman may some day return to civilization will not miss this gripping story.

VAN WYCK MASON, internationally famous author of thrilling mystery novels, joins the Green Magazine's brilliant aggregation of writers.

Tomorrow, Author Mason presents "The Cairo Garter Murders," one of the best and certainly one of the most hair-raising in his long list of books.

The plot concerns a man-hunt on the high seas, a search for arms smugglers and a baffling series of killings that almost defy solution.

DAVE EGAN subjects Dave Wilson to his literary microscope tomorrow. His purpose is to show how the nation's Number One Handicapper is able to forecast race results.

The thousands of New Englanders who follow the "sport of kings" at Narragansett, Suffolk Downs and Rockingham Park would not think of neglecting this spectacle of one expert investigating another expert and revealing his findings.

THE THOUSANDS who enjoyed Chapter One of "The Strange Beecher Family" in last Sunday's Advertiser know now how they are going to spend at least a half-hour tomorrow morning. They are going to open their Green Magazine and read Chapter Two.

George Clarke accurately pictures Henry Ward Beecher's early struggles, his marriage and the troubles that beset him during his first pastorate.

AFTER COMMENCEMENT—WHAT? No fewer than a hundred thousand young men and women in this city, state and section are asking that all-important question.

School days rapidly passing, Graduation Day approaching, bills accumulating and hopelessness increasing—college and high students grow increasingly anxious concerning job prospects.

What can be done? Isn't there SOME WAY an ambitious boy or girl may obtain work? Or is the WPA and the Government's relief program the most that one can look forward to in this proverbial land of opportunity?

In tomorrow's Advertiser, Harvard employment authorities consider these questions and provide information and comments that will go a long way towards ending youth's perplexity.

It is the kind of article that commends itself powerfully to the student who really wants work.

THERE IS TRAGEDY in society. In the top-flight world of money, luxury and glamour the same heartaches that afflict mortals in the lesser sphere may be found. Cholly Knickerbocker, noted reporter of the doings of the "400," proves this tomorrow in the Advertiser.

Among others, Mr. Knickerbocker discusses the troubles of Mrs. James Brown Potter, mother of the well known "Fi Fi" Potter.

WHAT WILL YOU WEAR tomorrow, next year or a decade from now? Every woman and many men have considered that query without finding a satisfactory answer.

Yesterday's styles look funny to son and daughter. Today's hat and coat will surely be considered equally ridiculous ten years hence.

That is why the Advertiser's fashion experts undertake to draw a convincing picture of the garb of the future, when marvelous new fabrics will replace the wools, worsteds and linens that have been familiar for centuries.

Every woman interested in looking and dressing well will resolve now to study this prediction.

FROM NEW HAMPSHIRE, the Advertiser obtains facts for an amazing crime story aptly titled "The Minister Gives a Murder Hint."

It is a true account of the mysterious death of a Manchester woman and the activities of a minister who became a sort of Sherlock Holmes.

ANOTHER HIT TUNE and the reasons why it was written appear in tomorrow's Green Magazine. It is the very popular ballad, "Our Love."

THE SPORTS PARADE, presenting its sparkling cavalcade of foremost writers and commentators, promises hours of excellent reading in every New England home.

Baseball, horse racing, dog track events, football preparations, school and college athletics are told accurately and interestingly.

THE AMERICAN WEEKLY, world's most widely circulated magazine, cannot be properly described in this limited space. We must content ourselves with recommending such splendid articles as:

"A Scientist Says the Human Throat Wasn't Made for Singing," "Puzzling Plight and Problems of a Sky-Widow," "Married 26 Years and Never Saw Each Other," "Whose Unseen Hands Are Tormenting Mrs. Thomas?" "Plans a Trade Union for Jobless Royalties," "How Alyce Swam Her Way to Health," Vassar Girl Becomes Paris Mannequin and What She Learned," "Science Again Challenging the Curse of Empress Carlotta's Jewels," and "Burned His Home Town to Spite His Wife."

BISHOP SPELLMAN TO SAY HIS FAREWELL TOMORROW

There will be a tug at the hearts of speaker and listeners tomorrow at all masses in Sacred Heart Church, Newton Center.

Archbishop Francis J. Spellman will be saying his farewell to his flock—and some time in the afternoon he will depart Newton in preparation for his installation, on Tuesday, as sixth archbishop of New York.

Tomorrow the archbishop, as has been his custom, will celebrate the 8:30 mass at Sacred Heart Church.

At that mass he will deliver his farewell sermon, but before that he will have delivered his farewell at the earlier masses—and after his own mass he will give his farewell sermon at the later services.

The archbishop, at his own mass, also will administer first holy communion to a class of parish children.

Unattended, the archbishop will leave the Sacred Heart rectory in Newton Center some time in early afternoon and will travel to South Norwalk, Conn., where at Manresa House, he will remain until his journey to New York for Tuesday's installation ceremonies at St. Patrick's Cathedral.

In 1911, as a member of the Fordham University class, he went to Manresa House to consider, in prayerful meditation, the call to the priesthood.

Auxiliary Bishop Stephen J. Donahou of New York, accompanied by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas Lavelle, vicar-general of the New York diocese, will travel to Manresa on Monday—and from there they will accompany the new archbishop to his new See in Manhattan.

TO BE INSTALLED

In solemn splendor and full, pompous ritual, Archbishop Spellman will be installed at St. Patrick's Cathedral on Fifth avenue in the presence of archbishops, bishops, the clergy and distinguished members of the laity.

The ceremony will be performed by the Apostolic Delegate, Most Rev. Amleto Cicognani, who will bestow the sacred pallium on the former auxiliary bishop of Boston, but at a later date.

The pallium is his symbol of office, and investure of the archbishop-e'ect with the pallium often takes place at the same time as the installation.

In the case of Archbishop Spellman, however, there will be an interval.

This is because the archbishop-elect must present a petition for the pallium to the Consistory in Rome, the ecclesiastical Senate, or meeting of the College of Cardinals over which the Pope presides. The pallium is then sent by Rome to the archbishop.

The Consistory has not met since the official announcement of Archbishop Spellman's appointment.

Archbishop Francis J. Spellman who will bid good-bye to parishioners tomorrow at masses in Sacred Heart Church, Newton, preparatory to his installation Tuesday as bishop of the New York diocese.

$600 Haul Made In No. End Safe

Two professional safe cracking "mobs" invaded the North End today, taking $600 from one office and finding no cash at the second.

In the offices of the Boston Armature Works, Inc., Traverse street, the yeggs broke through a skylight, took a three-by-four-foot safe into the cellar and burned it open with an acetylene torch. This was the $600 haul.

Another gang, using a different technique, ripped open a safe in the office of the Eastern Paper & Box Company, Inc., in Endicott street, only to find it empty, except for valueless papers.

Decision Monday In Backus Case

Long in argument before the state public utilities commission the case of John H. Backus, director of the Blue Sky division, will be decided Monday.

committee, disclosed frequent exchanges of letters between Moseley, Campbell and George Deatherage, St. Albans, W. Va., chief of the Knights of the White Camellias, in which plans were discussed for widespread dissemination of anti-Semitic propaganda.

In addition, two prominent political personages, Republican National Committee Chairman John D. M. Hamilton and Felix M. McWhirter, present treasurer of the Indiana Republican state committee and prominent Indianapolis bank president—were disclosed to have had correspondence with Campbell.

CALL G. O. P. HEAD

Hamilton supplied Campbell with a list of names and addresses of Republican national committee members.

Moseley, Hamilton, Deatherage and McWhirter all have been subpoenaed to testify next week. Gilbert and Campbell testified behind closed doors Thursday and it was on evidence taken from them that the committee disclosed the propaganda campaign which Gilbert financed.

Committee members said they viewed the "confidential" reports, which Gilbert furnished and Campbell distributed, as the "key" to the whole plot. The committee received testimony the reports contained a number of predictions that later materialized, including advance predictions of the arrival of the French commission to buy airplanes; the journey of James Roosevelt to England, and the surprise return of the fleet from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean.

Moseley 'Helping Save U. S., His Reply to Dies

EL CENTRO, Cal., May 20 (AP)—Maj-Gen. George Van Horn Moseley, linked by Chairman Martin Dies' congressional committee on un-American activities with an anti-Semitic movement in the United States, replied to the accusation in a formal statement today.

The retired army officer said he was investigating un-American activities in California's Imperial valley.

He said he had not received a subpoena to appear before the Dies committee.

"My attention has just been called to press reports to the effect that I am a Fascist," Moseley said. "The reports state that I am engaged in un-American activities.

"That statement is fully in keeping with the findings of the Massachusetts investigating committee on un-American activities, wherein it was stated, the constant mis-use of the term 'Fascism,' as synonymous with anti-Communism, is significant of communistic misrepresentation and deceit.

"All I am doing is to continue to follow those patriotic Christian American principles which have governed me for a lifetime in serving the Republic of the United States, particularly during this period of emergency, in assisting as far as I am able in my subordinate position, in saving America from herself.

"Do the American people not realize that we are in the midst of the greatest battle of our history, first: the battle to keep America out of war and second, to save ourselves from those enemies prospering today within our gates and as the Dies committee found, in key positions in federal agencies and projects?

"How strange it is today that a patriot can discuss openly and frankly the problem involving the Irish, the Italian, the German and all, but let him mention any internationalisms or Zionism and their increasing control in America, then he is attacked on all sides and even his life may be threatened.

"Repeatedly I have declined to join any organization directly or indirectly. My work has been done frankly and in the open."

150,000 Expected For Maritime Day

Port of Boston, recently shown to be the second largest ocean gateway to the nation, will put on its best bib and tucker tomorrow when it will play host for an expected attendance of 150,000 persons at the annual observance of National Maritime Day.

The observance is to commemorate the first steam crossing of the Atlantic in 1819 by the American steamer Savannah which sailed out the Georgia port by that name on May 22.

So great has become the appeal of the Boston celebration that for the past few years special trains and buses have been pressed into service to meet the tremendous influx of spectators.

The celebration which gets underway at 10 a. m. and runs until 5 p. m. will have its hub of activity at Commonwealth pier, South Boston.

From here can be viewed the lifeboat and dory races and the huge marine parades. Tied up at the pier will be the new 10,000-ton cruiser Philadelphia, flagship of cruiser division 8, which will open to public inspection.

In the afternoon Governor Saltonstall, Mayor Tobin, Senator Walsh and Congressman McCormack will deliver short addresses, upon the significance of the observation.

Captain George Goodwin of the schooner Edith C. Rose and Captain Albert Hines of the schooner Isabelle Parker will tell of their experiences when these two fishing boats collided 150 miles out at sea several weeks ago and sank bringing death to one fisherman.

Directly across from Commonwealth Pier is the Boston Fish Pier, world's largest, where fishing craft of all types, some identical to the ill fated schooners, will be berthed.

Just a little farther down the harbor at the Army Base, with the largest docking facilities in Boston, another heavy cruiser, the U. S. S. Savannah, will be open to public inspection.

At this pier, where dock passenger liners and freighters from all four corners of the earth flying the flags of all nations, divers from the Charlestown Navy Yard will put on thrilling exhibition.

FIGHT TO KEEP TRAINS

Mayors, selectmen and civic organizations throughout southeastern Massachusetts today marshaled their separate proposals to save passenger service of the Old Colony railroad—preparing to present them before Governor Saltonstall's advisory committee at a hearing Wednesday at the State House.

All those affected by the proposed abandonment of service have been invited to offer suggestions toward a solution to the problem.

At the same time assurance was given by Arthur P. Russell, president of the road, that petition for abandonment of 48 passenger stations along the line will not be made for at least three months and that passenger schedules will be maintained throughout the summer.

In the meantime, the advisory committee will meet at 10:30 Monday morning to consult with Prof. William J. Cunningham of Harvard who made an exhaustive survey of the Old Colony and New Haven railroads at the order of the District Court of New Haven.

Representatives of every transportation company running into Boston conferred with members of the advisory committee yesterday.

Edward Dana, president of The Boston Elevated, announced that the rapid transit lines, which parallel the Old Colony branch to Quincy and Milton, could handle 10,000 more passengers daily without additional equipment.

Eliot Wadsworth, of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, reported that only 40,000 of the 500,000 South Shore commuters use the Old Colony.

DESPAIR is tempered by hope for the safety of her flier-sweetheart as Letitia Lenz, 20, offers a tearful prayer in St. Henry's Catholic Church, Chicago. Charles Backman, Swedish-American aviator, is long overdue on his solo flight to Sweden.

Clipper on First Leg of Sea Hop

BALTIMORE, May 20 (AP)—The silvery flying boat "Yankee Clipper" took off at 8.56 a. m. (Boston time) today for New York on the first leg of a flight across the Atlantic.

The Pan-American Airway's 41½ ton plane carried a crew of 14 and 4000 pounds of mail on the first scheduled commercial heavier-than air flight across the Atlantic.

Twelve years to the day after Charles A. Lindbergh left New York on his flight to Paris, Capt. Arthur E. LeForte, pointed the Clipper into the air and soared off from Baltimore harbor.

QUAKE ROCKS CHILE

ARICA, Chile, May 20 (AP)—An earthquake caused a panic in this town of 15,000. Although many walls crumbled, no persons were reported injured.

Troops Ambushed By Harlan Strikers

HARLAN, Ky., May 20 (AP)—Arrest of 38 men a short time after a brisk exchange of gunshots between state troopers and a mountainside ambuscade was reported today by National Guardsmen patroling Harlan County's troubled soft coal field.

The incidents topped a series of swift-moving developments in this important bituminous area's labor controversy last night which included the wounding of a miner and the announced intention of the state highway patrol to police Kentucky's interstate highway bridges "to keep Communists out of the state."

Brigadier-General Ellerbe Carter, commanding the militiamen, said troopers "returned the fire" of a group of persons concealed on a mountain slope near Louellen, Ky., east of Harlan, and then drove away their assailants.

Lieutenant J. C. Fleming said the guardsmen's prisoners were taken into custody at Highsplint, about four miles from Louellen, as they rode along a highway in a truck. In the truck, Lieutenant Fleming said, the military found two pistols, a blackjack, a razor and several knives.

Several hours earlier Eugene McLaughlin, a 24-year-old miner, was shot in the thigh when someone yelled "Scab." As the night wore on, a man identified by a National Guard major as John Padgett, was jailed in the shooting.

Meantime, Federal Labor Conciliator John L. Conner, after conferences with the union and operators, said:

"I am hoping and I predict a settlement will be made next week."

The Harlan County Coal Operators' Association, representing 42 mines in the local field, is the only large group of soft coal owners still refusing the United Mine Workers' "union shop" contract.

Hunt for 'Drowned' Boys Turns to Fair

Search for two missing South End boys, believed first to have been drowned beneath the West Boston bridge, turned to New York and the World's Fair today.

After grappling for 16 hours in the Charles river below, police announced they now are convinced the two boys, Joseph Bomboaca, 17, of Corning street, and Robert Flatich, 13, of Village street, had run away to the fair.

ARRAIGNED AS AXE SLAYER

EAST PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 20—Herbert C. Carnes, 48, today faced a charge of murder in connection with the axe-slaying of his 58-year-old wife, Lulu.

The victim, bride of a year, was hacked to death in the kitchen of the home they received as a Christmas present.

A mortgage on the home and bills piled up in renovation of the home Carnes told the police, led to nagging of his wife, because he had no job and she, a private secretary, had to bear the financial load.

For two hours after killing her, Carnes roamed through the little home for which they had planned so much, then called police to say:

"Send a police escort for me. I just murdered my wife."

It happened, he said, while she was eating breakfast, and she flung the epithet "dumbell."

U. S. Cruiser Hunts Missing Vessel

The cruiser U. S. S. Astoria will leave Guam Monday in search of the Chinese junk on which Robert Chase of Hillside street, Milton, is a crew member, his parents were told today.

The missing vessel was last heard from 2400 miles out of Hong Kong shortly before a typhoon struck. It was en route to be exhibited at the Golden Gate Exposition.

OVERHAUL YANKEE

The streamline "Flying Yankee," Boston and Maine train, went out of service today for one month for its annual overhaul at the Concord, N. H., shops of the railroad.

Grow younger this Summer

Not magic: it's all done with clothes. Not ordinary clothes, of course, but cleverly designed dresses, as sketched, that magically give you back the tiny waist and naive curves of yesteryear. It's the time-miracle worked by the new summer fashions . . . now in the Value Belt stores. The crisp coolness of the new cottons, rayons and light silks helps a lot. So do the youthful exuberance of puffed sleeves and the gay swirling skirts. The same magic in evening clothes for men, too. Sleekly form-fitting but lightly, loosely cool things supplant the old starchy formalities. Come to "the Fair of Youth" in Boston's Value Belt. Along with the new, you're assured of the old shopping satisfactions . . . endless variety, real quality, full-measured value, every service and convenience for the youth-search.

Puck Test Winners Named

Two cash "sur-prize" winners are on the latest list of successful Hearst Comic Weekly Puck Stars and Stripes Club contestants, announced today.

They are in addition to the winners of the regular $100 in cash prizes awarded weekly in the contest—a big and profitable entertainment feature of your Boston Sunday Advertiser.

Prizes announced today are for club members who triumphed in the May 7 contest.

Winners of the May 14 contest will be announced in your Boston Evening American next Friday. Another Stars and Stripes Club Contest appears in your next Boston Sunday Advertiser.

No difficult rules to worry about! You enter any time. Even if you don't win a prize right off the bat, you'll enjoy meeting the Dingbat of Bongunga, prince of puzzle potentates, together with other strange and mirth provoking characters that inhabit his screw-ball domain.

The National Puzzle Championship of the week goes to a girl—Barbara Jean Sieverling, Everett, Wash.

New England winners of the May 7 contest, each of whom will receive a cash prize of one dollar, are:

Charles Jeglinski, Oliver street, New Bedford; Ronald Carr, Payson road, Belmont; Maria Brune, Maverick street, East Boston; David Bartlett, St. Mark's School, Southboro; Therese Simard, Kinsley street, Nashua, N. H.; Allan Fernald, Berwick street, Sanford, Me., and A. Lessard, Pine street, Biddeford, Me.; Robert Krinkley, Myrtle avenue, Bridgeport, Ct.

Pendergast Set For Prison Term

KANSAS CITY, May 20 (AP)—Democratic Boss Tom Pendergast goes into federal court Monday to plead guilty, the Kansas City Star says, to charges of income tax evasion, to pay approximately $450,000 in taxes and penalties, and to plead for mercy on a prison term.

This decision was reached, the newspaper said, after a series of conferences between Pendergast, his attorneys, United States District Attorney Maurice Mulligan and Judge Merrill E. Otis.

Pendergast is accused by a Federal grand jury of evading income taxes on $443,350 in 1935 and 1936.

The maximum punishment is five years in prison and $10,000 fine on each of two counts.

The Star said Pendergast would gain but one concession from the government by entering his plea at this time—the government to drop its investigation of his income for 1933, 1934 and 1937, well under way.

"There appears to be no chance whatever that Pendergast will be able to evade a prison term," the Star said.

Dr. Charles H. Mayo Battles Pneumonia

CHICAGO, May 20 (INS)—Attended by three doctors, Dr. Charles H. Mayo, famous physician and surgeon, was battling pneumonia in a Chicago hospital today.

A bulletin stated Dr. Mayo had shown "quite a bit of improvement" since yesterday.

Considerable concern was felt, however, because of his age. Dr. Mayo is 73, and the younger of the two brothers who have made their clinic in Rochester, Minn., a world renowned center of medical science.

The elder Mayo, William, who is 77, underwent a major abdominal operation at St. Mary's Hospital in Rochester several weeks ago.

Bar Gold Steady

LONDON, May 20 (AP)—Bar Gold 148s 6d, unchanged (Equivalent $34.76.)

Bar silver 20 1-16d, off 1-16. (Equivalent 42.26 cents.)

STOCK PRICES UP IN QUIET TRADING

NEW YORK, May 20 (AP)—The stock market maintained its forward direction in today's brief proceedings but, as in recent sessions, speed was lacking.

Gains ran to a point or so for leaders in the final hour, with motors, rubbers, oils and steels favored.

Business hopes seemed to have revived somewhat as a market prop and thoughts of modest tax revision by Congress continued. European news apparently was a neutral factor. Many traders stood aside pending President Roosevelt's speech before the American Retail Federation Monday.

Bonds inclined to edge upward. Commodities were narrow.

Stocks in the advancing division were General Motors, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Goodyear, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Kennecott, American Telephone, Santa Fe, Standard Oil of N. J., Texas Corp., Sears Roebuck and Montgomery Ward.

A brisk upturn in retail trade last week, as estimated by the Federal Reserve Board, was viewed by market analysts as a promising omen.

For the country as a whole the reserve authorities placed department store sales at 22 per cent above the aggregate in the same 1938 week, with all districts participating in the increase.

Reported gains over a year ago included: Philadelphia and Atlanta 31 per cent each; Richmond, 29; Cleveland and Chicago, 28 each; St. Louis, 25; Boston, 24; Dallas, 23; Kansas City, 18; New York, 16; Minneapolis, 14, and San Francisco, 8.

Noted were the figures of the Association of American Railroads disclosing Class 1 carriers in the first quarter had a net deficit of $43,591,000, after fixed charges, compared with a net deficit of $105,737,000 in the corresponding months last year.

Woman Is Boss Absolutely in Athol—For Day

ATHOL, May 20 (AP)—Women storekeepers, women police, women clerks and women managers were the order of the day as the gentler sex left the kitchen to run the town today.

Women in traffic duty in Main street, took over the selectmen's duties, point the regular edition of the Athol Daily News, and only a presence of fire hazards in nearby woodlots prevented the taking over the fire ladies' jobs.

Local bosses women fight up the idea of the wholetown co-operated, though several youths led a mild opposition by marching and with cards which read: Unfair Often," "You Can't Do this to Us'

Now He'll Be Able To Sleep Nights

Frederick J. Dixon of Illvista road, Brighton is sure a conscientious citizen.

Arriving back from Cuba to his firm's New Jersey offices found in his forward mail at his license had been suspended because he failed to pay a $1 fine for illegal parking in downtown Boston last. Wilson hopped a plane; flew to Boston to explain it all and then went back to his business.

Charges Wife Buried In Lot With Stranger

by telephone, but could not, so he had sent me a postcard.

"He said he didn't think anything of it when I wasn't at the funeral, because lots of times nobody came to welfare burials.

"I found out from the undertaker where the grave was in Mt. Hope cemetery. But when I went there, I discovered it had been a double funeral and somebody else's body had been buried with my wife's.

CLAIMS IT "CHEAPER"

"They told me that was the way it was always done, because it was cheaper.

"It was a terrible shock to me. I was broken-hearted. I didn't see my wife's body put in the grave. How do I know there wasn't some mistake made. Now my children and I haven't even the comfort of mourin there.

"I was working regularly at City Hospital. The welfare department people knew where I could be found. Why wasn't I notified.

William G. O'Hare, executive secretary of the public welfare department, told the Boston Evening American today:

"The undertaker sent Cotter regular notification by mail 48 hours before the funeral.

"It is true that deceased welfare recipients are usually buried two in a grave. But that's often done in private burials, too.

"We allot $32 for an adult funeral. This includes $20 for the undertaker for embalment and coffin, $10 for opening the grave, and $2 for clergyman.

"I have no information now concerning particulars arrangements for Mrs. Cotter's burial."

The Dorchester undertaker said today:

DENIES MAN BURIED, TOO

"It's not true that a man's body was buried in the same grave with Mrs. Cotter's.

"There were three infants interred in the cemetery that day at public welfare department expense. I think one of those bodies must have been put in the Cotter grave.

"The husband talked with me about the notification I sent him by mail. He said letters and cards were often lost at his Rutland street address, and he guessed that was what happened in this case.

"He seemed to feel it was just one of those things and nobody could be blamed."

"Better Tax Visibility"

TAXATION IS DEPRESSIVE—TAXATION IS DEFLATIONARY!

It has been said that the power to TAX is the power to DESTROY!

All over the country business is being destroyed by EXCESSIVE TAXATION!

The average man is not aware that the tax collector is also knocking at his door.

HIDDEN TAXES are another form of government assessment that extract the tax in a seemingly painless manner from the average man because . . .

- on every loaf of bread there are no less than 47 different hidden taxes.
- he pays four cents on every gallon of gasoline
- if he buys a package of cigarettes daily, he pays $21.90 in hidden taxes yearly.
- if he buys a new suit of clothes, he absorbs 12 different hidden taxes.
- if he pays $400 a year in rent he pays $160 in hidden taxes
- one-sixth of the electric light bills go to the tax collector.
- there are approximately 86 different taxes on each pair of shoes.
- nearly 10 cents of every dollar paid for a railroad ticket goes for taxes.
- he pays approximately $5 taxes on every set of automobile tires he buys.

WHAT HELPS BUSINESS HELPS YOU!

LESS TAXES MEAN MORE JOBS — AND THE PEOPLE COULD KEEP FOR THEMSELVES MORE OF THE INCOME THEY PRODUCE. PURCHASING POWER WOULD ALSO BE INCREASED. BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY WOULD HAVE MORE MONEY FOR EXPANSION AND MORE MONEY TO RAISE WAGES OF PRESENT EMPLOYES

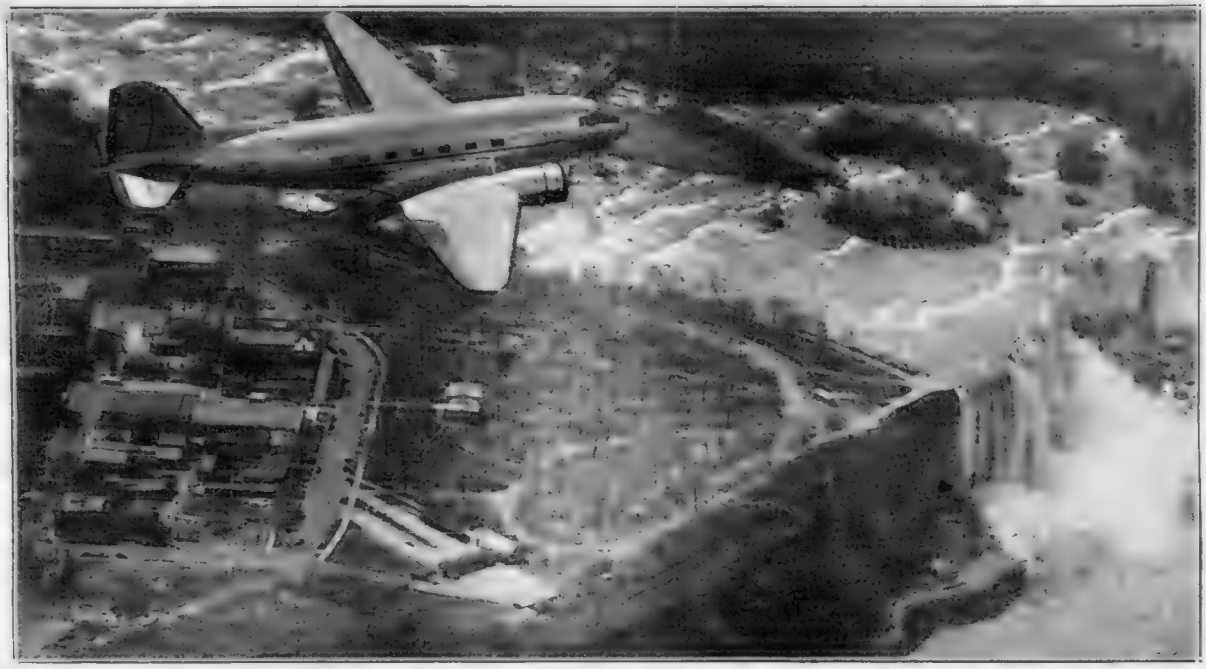
Wings Over Niagara Falls



Flying Low!—The roar of Niagara Falls mingles with the roar of airplane motors in a cacophony of progress as this huge passenger ship flies low over the harnessed waters. Below, on shore, the budding trees already tell the story of coming spring—and honeymooners.

Buddy Hassett Wins First Base Job

Jimmy Durante's $1400 Break

YOU MAY WRITE it in your book that Buddy Hassett has won the first base job with the Bees. Elbie Fletcher will be used as trading material or permitted to wait an opportunity to play as a utility man.

Hassett made his first Boston appearance of the year at the Baseball Writers' dinner at the Copley-Plaza. He smiled pleasantly and then sang half a dozen Irish songs.

"You will like Hassett," Mickey Cochrane said to me at the time. "He is bright, has a great deal of personality and can play ball."

I remarked to Mickey that Bob Quinn and Casey Stengel would be satisfied if Hassett could get a few base hits for the Bees.

"He'll do that, too," remarked Mickey. "The boy is all ball player."

In Florida I saw Hassett [illegible] from first to right field.

"I never played right field," Hassett told Casey Stengel. "But if you want me to do so I shall try."

Hassett did and he made a good showing at the bat and while batting held up.

Fletcher looked good at first base and in the field during the spring training. He has not done so well since the Bees came north. It was only a question of time when Hassett would be moved to first base.

English, 32 years old, broke into the majors with the Cubs in 1927 and after a season was traded to Brooklyn. He has not played a game since 1937, retiring after Brooklyn sold him to the Cincinnati Reds. He returned to uniform when the Cubs added him to their roster this season but he did not break into the lineup.

A. L. PENNANT RACE TWO TEAM AFFAIR

By JOE CASHMAN

The American League, as a whole, is proving the weakest in the post-war history of the circuit.

The Yanks and Red Sox are making a show of the rest of the field.

The Cleveland Indians, who put up a creditable argument the greater part of last season, already are six games back of the roof, even though they are in third place.

The Detroit Tigers, expected to be fairly dangerous this year, are on the threshold of the cellar, 11 games removed from the attic.

The St. Louis Browns, currently appearing at the Fens, are sharing the basement with the A's. They, too, are 11 [illegible] on the Yanks.

9 STRAIGHT FOR YANKS

[illegible]

There have been two examples at the Fens in the past four afternoons. The natives returned home on Tuesday last to massacre the White Sox in 4.

Yesterday the Detroiters invaded the Yawkey Raid to be trounced 15 to 7, despite making 15 hits.

Three pitchers couldn't pitch their leaders scuttle-bold.

Jim Bagby breezed to his third win of the year as the natives, paced by Jim Taber who bashed out a homer, a double and two singles, collected 16 safeties and the hostiles committed five errors.

SIX CLUBS IN RUT

There'll be many more such afternoons in the vicinity of Jersey street before the season is over, unless six clubs in the wheel hurry and get themselves ball clubs.

Some may claim that it isn't a case of six clubs being weaker but of the Yanks and Red Sox being stronger.

That's a ridiculous argument.

Certainly, the Yanks with DiMaggio and Gomez on the hospital list and Gehrig in retirement, aren't

Yanks Hang Up Ninth in Row

NEW YORK, May 20 (INS)—Red Ruffing turned in his sixth straight triumph of the year as a Ladies' Day throng of 25,000 watched the Yankees bag their ninth in a row, 4 to 2, over the Chicago White Sox.

Ed Smith staged a pitcher's battle with Ruffing until the Yankees chased him in the eighth on Gordon's single. Gallagher's triple and a pass. Ruffing's second hit of the game and an out combined to make the total for the inning three runs, after relief hurler Brown came on the scene.

The Sox tallied in the sixth on Walker's triple and Radcliff's single. Sylvestri's homer in the ninth accounted for their other tally.

Chicago got seven hits and the Yankees six.

Athletics Move Out of Cellar

PHILADELPHIA, May 20 (INS)—The Athletics moved out of last place in the American League by turning back the Detroit Tigers, 11 to 6. The St. Louis Browns, beaten by the Boston Red Sox, became the new cellar occupants.

Buck Ross, who had held the Tigers to two safeties until the seventh, was rocked from the box in that inning, when Detroit counted four runs and forged into a 6 to 5 lead.

Chubby Dean, who followed Ross to the slab, put the Athletics back in front when his double tallied three runs in the lower half of the seventh.

Detroit sent Benton, Walkup, Coffman and Trout to the hill, the Athletics treating this array to a 16-hit barrage. Sam Chapman contributed a home run to help sink the Tigers.

Hudlin Pitches Indians to Victory

WASHINGTON, May 20 (INS)—Willis Hudlin pitched the Cleveland Indians to an 8 to 4 success over the Senators in the opening game of their series.

Ken Chase started for Washington, but was lifted for a pinch-hitter in the fifth inning and Harry Kelley finished the mound chore.

Weak infield support was a major cause of the Senators' downfall. Lewis, at third base, made three misplays, one of them, a wild throw to the sixth, resulted in three runs and a lead the Indians held to the end.

Lombardi's Home Run Submerges Phillies

CINCINNATI, May 20 (INS)—A homer by Ernie Lombardi—his second in two days and fifth of the year—settled a tight duel in favor of the Reds against the Phillies, 4 to 3, in 12 innings.

Lombardi's liner over the left field fence with one out decided a pitching battle between Paul Derringer and Max Butcher. It was Lombardi's third hit of the contest.

Rain delayed the game 15 minutes in Philadelphia's half of the fourth and then fell intermittently the remainder of the struggle.

The Phillies had only four assists the entire game. Cincinnati's leadoff man fouled to the Phillies catcher in each of the last four innings.

Billy Jurges Spark Of Giants' Victory

CHICAGO, May 20 — The New York Giants battered out an 11 to 5 triumph over the Chicago Cubs, with Billy Jurges, former Bruin, sizzling a single with the bases full in the sixth to spark the decisive three-run rally.

Frank Demaree, another former Cub, led the Giants at bat with two singles and a double in four times up. Hank Leiber, who the Chicagoans got when they sent Demaree and Jurges to the Giants, clouted a homer and a pair of singles.

Harry Gumbert went the route, holding the Cubs to eight hits.

The Giants scored five runs in the second, three in the sixth, two in the seventh and one in the eighth. Lillard, Root and J. Russell pitched for Chicago.

A. L. Faces Dire Straits

as formidable today as they were at their best last season.

And the Sox, with Rookies Tabor and Williams replacing Higgins and Chapman, and only three .300 hitters where they finished with six a year back, aren't any stronger at the moment than they were at their .38 peak.

No, it's a case of the rest of the loop being shot.

It may be, as some claim, that the National League is even weaker.

BALANCE IN N. L.

But if that's so, the senior circuit at least has balance. The tailenders have a fighting chance when they stack up against the pace-setters in the N. L. Only five games separate the eight clubs at this stage of the flag struggle.

The owners, players and followers of the two strong clubs in the A. L. may enjoy the wide edge they hold over the rest of the field but the situation is bound to be resented in the other six cities and, while it continues, all eight teams are destined to take a financial licking.

The A's and Indians are trying night ball this year.

Every entry will need aces to stay out of the red next year unless the strength in the A. L. becomes more evenly distributed.

Germany Leading Poles on Court

WARSAW, Poland, May 20 (AP)—Germany's Davis Cup team took a lead over Poland in the opening singles matches of their European zone match.

Roderick Menzel, who formerly played under Czecho-Slovak colors, won 7—5, 6—3, 2—6, 9—7, 6—4, over the Polish ace, Adam Bawotowski, who once played for Austria, although a Pole by birth. The second match was called because of darkness with Ignacy Tloczynski leading Germany's Heinrich Henkel, 6—4, 6—8, 6—4.

Rutgers Crew in Title Defense

RED BANK, N. J., May 20 (AP)—Rutgers University crew will defend its title today when the Vail Trophy goes on the block before seven collegiate crews in the first "Dad Vail Regatta."

Rutgers is favored to sweep all three events—freshman, jayvee and varsity—in the competition on the Shrewsbury river. Competing with the Scarlet will be Dartmouth, Manhattan, Boston University, Marietta, American International and Rollins.

Harvard Favorite In Meet

NEW HAVEN, Ct., May 20 (AP)—Harvard's well-balanced track and field forces were established eight favorites to dethrone Princeton as the "Ivy League" team champions in the fifth annual heptagonal games at Yale Field today.

Over 250 athletes from Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Columbia, Cornell and the University of Pennsylvania were ready for a major assault on records during the 15-event program.

The Elis' track is one of the fastest in the East.

Experts predicted that Harvard's triumph, if it did materialize, would come the hard way and only by a slim margin. Princeton, Yale and Cornell were expected to push the crimson throughout.

Outstanding performers include Jim Lightbody, son of a former Olympic champion; Don Donahue, Bob Brayton, Gene Clark and Torbe MacDonald of Harvard; John Nevius, Don Weadon, Jim Pedner, George Ranney and Jim Pender of Cornell; Hughes Cauffman and John Dreibinger, Jr., of Penn; Bobby Jackson, Art Gilkes and Paul Douglas of Princeton; Herb Weast of Columbia and Jay Shields, Dick Osborn, Ben Holderness and Lee Shapleigh of Yale, all of whom have featured in "Ivy League" dual meets this season.

Sports Interlude

Browns Lacking In Hurling Power | Cronin, Cramer, Starting To Hit

Manager Fred Haney of the Browns is bemoaning the fact that he hasn't the pitchers to stop opponents staging big innings . . . Other than his hurling corps, Haney has a pretty good looking ball club.

Joe Cronin was hitting less than .200 a week back . . . Now he's well on his way up the ladder and will enter the elite division within a few days. With Cronin and "Doc" Cramer hitting for their weight, the Red Sox are going to be more serious contenders for the American League pace making berth. Buddy Hassett and Al Simmons earned their "Bs" yesterday by driving in all of the runs scored by the Stengeleers . . . Incidentally, Al came up with his third triple in as many days . . .

Buddy Hassett

Henry Thompson, Harvard, and Bob Bingham, Amherst, posted 73s to tie for the medal in the qualifying round of the 6th annual New England Intercollegiate championship at Oakley . . . Thompson played in three William Randolph Hearst New England Junior championships, while Bingham hails from Milwaukee . . .

Coach Charlie Connelly was completely relaxed for he knew that his Holy Cross golfers didn't have a chance to retain their N. E. Intercollegiate team title . . . Harvard succeeded the Crusaders . . .

FLY TO FISH

Walter Seaver and "Andy" Anderson left for a ten-day fishing trip at Moosehead Lake this morning . . . They'll be met at Augusta by George Stobey, the State of Maine Fish and Game Commissioner and will fly up to Moosehead.

Bert Lowe and his musicians entertained the Columbia varsity, Jayvee and freshmen crew men last night at the Hotel Lenox . . .

Mrs. Bill Dineen is in town for a short visit with her son "Butch" who is a senior at the Harvard Graduate School . . . According to the boss of the Dineen family, Bill is in fine health and leading the life of Riley" . . . Jean Gowan, daughter of the late John Gowan is a member of the office staff at the Oakley Country Club . . . Bert Nicoll is in his 25th year at the Belmont Country Club.

While results to mind the break that Bert got the first spring he was at Belmont . . . The previous fall, the locker building burned to the ground . . . So all of the members bought new sets of clubs from their new pro . . . By the way, how many members of Belmont remember when the present 14th was the first green?

It was last played in 1915 . . . Roy Bronsdon, the new pro, has 34 youngsters receiving group instruction at Brae Burn every Saturday morning . . . He gives them two hours of his valuable time . . . The tip off that M. G. A. open tournaments have lost favor is that only 125 played during the Brae Burn two-day open.

"Harpo" Walsh and Buddy Foster, who starred for Dartmouth hockey teams during the past three years, will play with Walter Brown's Boston Olympics next season . . . "Harpo" hopes to secure a teaching-coaching berth in Greater Boston while Buddy will join the Whiting Milk Co. when he graduates next month.

SAM SNEAD FAVORITE

John "Mystery" Montague will attempt to qualify for the U. S. Open championship in Chicago on Monday . . . The "bookies" have made Sam Snead a co-favorite with Ralph Guldahl to win the U. S. open . . . But, the Spring Mills course officials are somewhat concerned for fear that something will happen to Sam and the big attraction will not qualify.

Horton Smith

The "gate" is a serious problem today in all national championships . . . Among the players who will compete in the Goodall Round Robin next month at Fresh Meadows, N. Y. are Guldahl, Snead, Jimmy Thomson, Dick Metz, Horton Smith, Walter Hagen, Harry Cooper, Jimmy Hines, Gene Sarazen, Denny Shute, Paul Runyan, Johnny Revolta and Olin Dutra.

In the event that he is not already in the field, the new Metropolitan champion who'll be crowned next week will receive a bid to play in the Goodall . . . There are five possibilities for the fifteenth and last berth . . . Sam Snead will be the defending champion . . . Apparently jobs are more or less permanent at Brae Burn . . . Dan Keefe has been with that club for 32 years and it was 29 years ago that Charlie Lindquist went there from Oakley.

Hugo Seppala, one of Newton's most ardent sport followers, has gone out on the limb that his pal Gene Sarazen will win the national open . . . Don't be surprised if a major championship comes to Boston within two years.

Speaking of championships, Sarazen rates Brae Burn in the first three championship courses in the country . . . Herman Spain, chairman of the Belmont golf committee, is seriously considering uniforms for his four ball team . . . During the past ten years, Harold W. Pierce, The Country Club has done a great deal for golf . . . In all probability, "H. M." will be the next president of the U. S. G. A.

Scout Largent Lands One More

COLLEGE STATION, Tex., May 20 (AP)—Roy Largent, veteran scout of the Chicago White Sox, who has picked off such first basemen as Zeke Bonura and Art (Whattaman) Shires, came up with another prospect today.

He signed Bob (Lefty) Williams, captain of the Texas Aggie nine who has clouted .350 in the past three seasons for the Farmers. Williams, considered one of the best fielders in the Southwest Conference, will report to the White Sox June 2.

Five Teams Share Lead in Gotham

NEW YORK, May 20 (AP)—With only about two days to go, New York's six-day bike race at Madison Square Garden settled down for some serious competition with a lot of jamming and five teams sharing the lead.

Green Golf Team To Play Princeton

STAMFORD, Ct., May 20 (AP)—The Dartmouth golf team won the right to meet Princeton here today for the Eastern Intercollegiate League title by beating Yale 6-3 in a playoff over the Woodway course.

Robert Jacobson, Manton Cotton, William Flehr and Daniel Harris won their singles matches for Dartmouth and Jacobson and Cotton and Flehr and William Clark teamed up in victorious bast-ball twosome combines for Dartmouth's other two points.

Sun Egret, Zoic Wilson's Choices

By DAVE WILSON
(Selections for fast track.)
BEST BET—ZOIC, 5TH RACE

Barring poor racing luck, A. C. Compton's good handicap horse, Sun Egret should come into his own this afternoon and the major portion of the $7500 added money hung out for the Governor's Handicap, mile feature which attracted 15 stars overnight.

FIRST RACE
Pass Out, Chief Counsel, Side Arm

PASS OUT, on a couple of good Pimlico races, is easily the most eligible of the maiden juveniles down to contest honors in the opener. CHIEF COUNSEL, second to Third Covey on opening day, looms as the only danger. SIDE ARM was beaten by Chief Counsel in the above race.

SECOND RACE
Black Look, Panoramascope, Old Nassau

BLACK LOOK, on general New York form, shapes up vastly superior to this field. PANORASCOPE, second to Somali in final essay at Narragansett Park, shapes up better than OLD NASSAU, which closed a big gap in his final race at Pimlico.

THIRD RACE
U-Boat, Dorothy Rock, Superstition

U-BOAT was barely beaten by Beach Ensemble and Court Dance in her final race at Narragansett Park. DOROTHY ROCK, pitted too high in her final endeavor at Gansett, looks next best on a previous win. SUPERSTITION raced well in spots during the Maryland spring campaign.

FOURTH RACE
Sirasia, Silent Witness, Ace Call

SIRASIA quit right on the money in a recent route test won by Short Cake. This abbreviated route should prove right to his measure. SILENT WITNESS is a good colt, but has never been any great shakes as a sprinter. ACE CALL, on best Maryland races, is a possibility.

FIFTH RACE
Zoic, Sun Egret, Slow Motion

ZOIC adds eight pounds, but he won't have Be Blue chasing him in the early stages. SUN EGRET, if reserved for this race, should prove the stoutest sort of a contender. SLOW MOTION looms next best on his final race at Pimlico, which saw him nosed out by Lady Maryland.

SIXTH RACE
Sun Egret, Rough Time, Clodion

SUN EGRET will probably have Rough Time to best for major honors. The latter barely hung on long enough to best the top selection for third honors in the Plymouth Rock. CLODION should have beaten Pagliacci for the major portion of the spoils in the Newport Handicap at Narragansett Park.

SEVENTH RACE
Passing Eve, Traicionero, Florian 2nd

PASSING EVE was going gamely at the finish of a recent mile-and-a-quarter test won by Boston Pal, and she looms capable of outstaying this field. TRAICIONERO second to Togerdemain in final essay at other town, figures next best in a two-horse race. FLORIAN 2ND, long overdue, must be classed as a wakeup possibility.

EIGHTH RACE
Mixed Weather, Count Rae, Sun Fighter

MIXED WEATHER, which placed to Our David in a six furlong test last out at Narragansett Park, should find this distance tailor-made. COUNT RAE, winner of a recent sprint at the other town, figures better than SUN FIGHTER, the solid router of the field.

Joe Kuhel Takes Over Bat Lead

NEW YORK, May 20 (AP)—New leaders came to the top of the major league batting crust today as the daily grind began to tell on the bulging figures of the early pace-setters.

The veteran Joe Kuhel of the Chicago White Sox, who has been in the vanguard of hitters since the start of the season, led both major leagues for hitters who had 60 or more times at bat including yesterday's games while Augie Galan of the Chicago Cubs headed the National League. Kuhel's mark was .413, Galan's .406.

The Windy City pair supplanted the St. Louis combination of Mel Mazzera of the Browns and Joe Medwick of the Cardinals who were at the top a week ago.

The tabulation:

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Huskies Strong With Bludgeon

Northeastern boasts two of the most versatile college baseball players of the year in Emanuel "Foxy" Flumere and Ed Lovequist, both of whom can play any position on the team.

Flumere, rated as one of the best all-around athletes in the college, was a regular at third base last season, started this year at second, and now is doing a sensational job at first.

Lovequist was a regular first baseman last year and this season has done outfielding, pitching and catching.

The Huskies now boast an imposing team batting average of well over .300, and point with considerable pride to the fact that all eight regulars, not including the pitcher, are batting over .300, with four of them over .400.

Captain Bill Little continues to lead the sticking with Sophomores Ed Colt and Sylvan Simon just a step behind.

The Huskies have two games this week, meeting New Hampshire at Durham on Wednesday and Tufts at Medford on Friday. The Jumbo game originally was scheduled for Saturday, but has been moved back at the request of the Medford authorities.

ALTON FINNEY, stable boy, whispers sweet words into Rebellion's ear at Suffolk Downs.

ROSLINDALE CLUB LEADS PARK LEAGUE

The Boston Park League completed the second week of operation with four games in which Roslindale Town Club rung up its eighth consecutive win and landed in first place six points ahead of the second-place St. Augustine Club of South Boston.

Roslindale shellacked the Murphy Club of Brighton 16-0 at Rogers Park, defeating the Murphy Club for the second time in as many days. The St. Augustines set back in midweek by two defeats by South Boston Town team, edged St. Alphonsus at South Boston 8-7, leaving the St. Al's two games behind in third place.

Ray Coolidge's South Boston Town Club climbed out of the cellar this week with two wins and made way for St. Catherine's of Charlestown.

Star of the Sea Club of East Boston ousted Casey from first position in the west division and now holds the spot by a one-point margin with an even number of games.

Casey club nicked Grimley of Holy Name for 11 hits to win at Fallon Field, 8-7, ending the week three games ahead of the Namers who are in third position in the west.

Navy Yard A. A. avoided the last position by winning ab Barry Field over St. Catherine's 6-2 and a new flinger, Anderson, turned the trick for the shipbuilders.

HUSKIES ENJOY TRIP

WATERVILLE, Me., May 20 (AP)—Charlie Foster's single in the 11th inning with two out sent the winning run across the plate and gave Northeastern University an 8-7 win over Colby.

Yesterday's Stars

By Associated Press

ERNIE LOMBARDI, Reds—Hit home run in 12th inning to beat Phillies.

RED RUFFING, Yankees—Spaced seven hits to beat White sox for his sixth victory without defeat this spring.

BUDDY HASSETT, Bees—His double drove in first two runs as Boston beat Pirates, 5-2.

JIM TABOR, Red Sox—Honored with one on and get double and two singles to lead hitting spree against Browns.

BILLY JURGES and HANK DANNING, Giants—Each singled with bases loaded in New York's 11-5 triumph over Cubs.

CHUBBY DEAN, Athletics—His pinch double with bases loaded scored three runs which he followed with two innings of shutout relief pitching to beat Tigers.

KEN KELTNER, Indians—Got two hits in three times at bat to drive in three runs in 8-5 victory over Senators.

TODAY A YEAR AGO—Yale won freshman and junior varsity races of Carnegie Cup Regatta from Cornell and Princeton before rough water on Lake Cayuga forced postponement of varsity event.

THREE YEARS AGO—Giants knocked Ray Parmelee out of box to beat Cardinals 10-7 for ninth straight victory, taking National League lead as Cards dropped to second.

FIVE YEARS AGO—Michael Scott, 58-year-old defending titleholder, withdrew from British amateur golf championship because of illness.

Fights Last Night

PHILADELPHIA—Frank Zamaris, 178, Orange, N. J., knocked out Tom Callahan, 174, Scranton, Pa. (1).

DETROIT—Bob Foster, New York, defeated Roscoe Toles, Detroit. Decision.

LOU FETTE OUT WITH SORE ARM

PITTSBURGH, May 20—The Boston Bees returned to the win column but only with saddened hearts for Lou Fette, their leading pitcher was forced to retire in the third inning in yesterday's game with the Pirates with a sore arm.

Since the rest of the hurlers have been unable to give the Boston delegation an even break on the road, Manager Casey Stengel is counting on Joe Sullivan, a newcomer to the squad, to hang up a second win over the Bucs.

There was some consolation to Manager Stengel in the fact that Lief Erickson can now be counted on as a starting pitcher. He relieved Fette in the third after the Pirates had scored two runs and held the locals scoreless for the remainder of the contest. The Bees won the verdict, 5-2, and Erickson was credited with the victory.

The Bees scored three runs in the first on Hassett's double and two in the second to blast Rip Sewell from the box and roll up enough to see them through the rest of the game.

Bill Swift, who replaced Sewell, yielded only two safeties the rest of the way.

Warstler, Cooney and Hassett collected two hits apiece in Boston's total of seven. The Pirates made nine bingles.

Wilson Has Banner Day

Old King Wilson had another banner day at Suffolk Downs.

The King of Handicappers scored again with four winners. Dave started off the day with a winner in the second race. He had High Tension on top and he won, paying $7.60.

Dreel won the second event and paid an even five bucks. Graustark, Wilson's code horse led the pack home in the fourth to reward his backers, $9.20. Just to keep his followers in a happy mood, the King advised Lady Hav in the seventh and he clicked paying $5.40.

Dave Wilson's choices appear daily in the Boston Evening American and his Monday choices are found in the Boston Sunday Advertiser.

To remain happy, follow Wilson.
